Notes for JOSEPH ROSATTI GOVERO:

My Great-grandfather was Joseph Rosatti Grovro (Grovero, Govero). He fought in the Civil War. His first wife died during the war and he married Rosalie Simpson (name of foster parents) when she was fifteen years old. He built a farmhouse near Cadet, MO, in Washington County, where they raised a family.

Rosalie was born near Richwoods. both her parents died during the Civil War, her mother probably of Cholera. Rosalie was nine years old. After being passed to various relatives, a family in town took her to raise and she used their surname. Her parents were French Creole and French Canadian. A daughter-in-law, Ruth Boyer Grovro, married to Dave Grovro, told me Rosalie's maiden name was Roussin, that her brother was David Roussin. Rosalie died around 1943, 1944.

Other Grovro siblings of Dave were: Alice Mary who married Chriss Sapper, Sarah, who married Ivan Corr, Agnes, who married Sanferd Cheak, Ed, Edna, and others.

I would like to correspond with anyone who has knowledge of any kind regarding this family. Many of their descendants currently live in the Cadet, Old Mines, and other Washington County areas.

Alice had a great love for the gifts of Mother Nature and enjoyed sharing the beauty of her flower garden with all. She was always ready for visitors and would always cook for them. Alice had a great talent of sewing and would get the needle and thread out to make a gift or fix an item for her family at any time. She enjoyed relaxing with a good book or other article to read.
